

(Calgary, AB) August 22, 2006 - For people who have Scottish roots or just love Celtic music there's an exciting concert happening on Sunday night. Phyllis Wheaton a local singer/songwriter and other musicians are putting on a concert to support Phyllis's upcoming tour of Scotland.

We are also trying to auction off the largest collection of CD's by local performers ever gathered in Calgary. If you want to get your CD included in the collection, call Phyllis at 714 5405. Concert Tickets $10 at TA Verns, 622 eight avenue southwest. That's Sunday, August 27th, and it kicks off with the bagpiper at 8 pm.
